SINGAPORE, April 19 (Bernama) -- Malaysia is the largest supplier of processed food to Singapore, with a share of 17 per cent of the republic's total imports of processed food from the world, says the Malaysia External Trade Development Corporation (Matrade) Singapore Trade Commissioner Naim Abdul Rahman.

He said the three top items imported by Singapore from Malaysia are prepared cereals, processed seafood and, chocolates and cocoa preparations.

"Processed food was Malaysia's eight largest export product to Singapore last year worth RM2 billion or 14 per cent share of Malaysia's total exports of processed foods to the world.

"The sector's exports to Singapore grew 10.6 per cent over 2010," he told Malaysian exhibitors at the Mara Pavilion in conjunction with the Food & HotelAsia (FHA) 2012 Singapore Expo here on Wednesday.

The networking event was graced by Malaysian High Commissioner to Singapore Datuk Md Hussin Nayan.
