KUALA LUMPUR, May 1 (Bernama) -- Police have been asked to act against the organisers of the protest rally which turned violent and destructive in the federal capital last Saturday.

Three non-governmental organisations (NGOs), namely the Suara Anak Muda 1Malaysia, Kelab Mahasiswa 1Malaysia and Persatuan Veteran Tentera Melayu lodged reports at the Dang Wangi district police contingent headquarters, here, Tuesday.

Dang Wangi police chief, ACP Mohamed Zulkarnian Abdul Rahman confirmed having received the three police reports.

The three NGOs asked police to take legal action against the rally organisers including lawyer Datuk S. Ambiga and opposition leader Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim and those who participated in the rally, which caused chaos, and for violating the court injunction that prohibited the gathering from being held at Dataran Merdeka.
