KUALA LUMPUR, April 21 (Bernama) -- The MIC has urged the education ministry to set up a specific division to undertake development and construction of Tamil schools nationwide.

Party president Datuk Seri G. Palanivel said the division should be headed by a director and have members comprising engineers, designers and financial officers.

"Wherever we go, we get requests from Tamil schools for various assistance. If there is a separate division, it can deal with requests from Tamil schools directly.

"The division can also set up a website and an email system to receive and monitor Tamil schools online," he said in a statement here Saturday.
