KUALA LUMPUR, April 21 (Bernama) -- Gerakan president Tan Sri Dr Koh Tsu Koon today challenged DAP secretary-general Lim Guan Eng to voice out his stand on the issue of the amendment to the 'Mufti and Fatwa (Kedah) Bill 2012'.

Koh said Guan Eng, who is also Penang Chief Minister, must state his stand whether to support or oppose the amendment as it would give an impact to the non-Muslim people in the state.

"We challenge Lim Guan Eng to voice out his stand on Kedah issue because all the time DAP always criticized on democracy, emphasizing on the need for the judiciary and now the process is going on in Kedah.

"Even non-Muslims are worried and concerned that Kedah is going towards a pure Islamic state but yet not a voice from the DAP on this issue...So, Lim Guan Eng what say you," said Koh during a press conference at the Gerakan Office, here.
