KOTA BELUD, April 28 (Bernama) -- The government has approved a RM40 million allocation for a road upgrading project in the Kadamaian state constituency, to begin next year.

Deputy Prime Minister Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin said the first phase of the project would involve six roads.

They are Jalan Melangkap-Piasau-Gaur (RM25 million), Jalan Tengkurus-Lahanas (RM5 million), Jalan Kaung-Lobong-Lobong (RM2.5 million), Jalan Tuguson (RM2.5 million), Jalan Tintapon (RM2.5 million) and Jalan Tokulung (RM2 million).

"The project was actually planned for 2014, but the government has asked the rural and regional development ministry to bring it forward to next year, as infrastructure, especially in Sabah and Sarawak, is our priority," said Muhyiddin.

He announced the road upgrading project to about 10,000 local residents at a meet-the-people session and presentation of 1Malaysia People's Assistance (BR1M) at Sekolah Menengah Kebangsaan Narinang here today.

Muhyiddin is on a two-day working visit to the state, beginning yesterday.

The deputy prime minister also announced a RM6 million allocation to upgrade various infrastructure and basic facilities in the district; RM5 million for the rehabilitation of schools around Kota Belud; RM500,000 to upgrade Masjid Pangkalan Abai and SMK Narinang; and a RM10,000 grant each to a number of organisations in the area.

Meanwhile, Sabah Chief Minister Datuk Seri Musa Aman in his speech, urged the people to continue supporting the Barisan Nasional (BN) based on its good track record in administering the country.

He also reminded BN component members to serve the people well.

"We have been chosen by the people...don't regard it as a privilege but a responsibility," he said.
