KUALA TERENGGANU, May 2 (Bernama) -- Terengganu Umno Liaison Committee chairman Datuk Seri Ahmad Said said the opposition's plan to amend the Federal Constitution with regard to the position of Islam in this country was only a general election promise.

He said the opposition, especially PAS, would promise anything including amending the Constitution if it wins the coming 13th general election.

"They can only talk. They will say different things to Chinese and Malay audiences. They (opposition) are all hypocrites," said Ahmad, who is also Terengganu Menteri Besar.

He was earlier asked to comment on PAS president Datuk Seri Abdul Hadi Awang's reported statement on amending the Constitution if the opposition wins the coming general election.
