KOTA KINABALU, May 2 (Bernama) -- Sabah Umno today embarked on its mission to solicit as many signatures, particularly party members, in its one million signature campaign.

The mission is in conjunction with the party's 66th anniversary celebrations.

State Umno liaison secretary Datuk Yahya Hussin said it was confident of the feat, taking into account Sabah's 450,000 Umno members.

In this regard, he urged all 25 Umno divisional secretaries in the state to ensure that the members penned their signatures on the banner.

"If possible, we want non-Umno members to sign, as well," he told reporters after attending a briefing on the Umno flag run and one million signature campaign at the Sabah Umno building here Wednesday.
