SHAH ALAM, April 30 (Bernama) -- Puncak Niaga Holdings Bhd executive chairman Tan Sri Rozali Ismail is offering himself to contest in the coming general election.

"If the people want me to contest, and if they think I am a winnable candidate, I will consider it," said Rozali, who is also Selangor Malay Chamber of Commerce president.

He said this when asked by reporters after chairing the chamber's annual general meeting here, on whether he would contest as Selangor Barisan Nasional candidate from the corporate world, to match Selangor Menteri Besar Tan Sri Abdul Khalid Ibrahim who has corporate experience in Guthrie Group and Permodalan Nasional Bhd before joining politics.
