KUANTAN, May 3 (Bernama) - The Sultan of Pahang, Sultan Ahmad Shah has expressed regret with certain parties for organising the rally that led to chaos.

The ruler said such action had caused a threat to national security and affected economic activities.

"There is tendency for certain parties to organise rallies and protests that can destroy the harmony. The irony is that many participants are Malay Muslims.

"We should be a role model for other communities to maintain harmony in the country," he said when opening the RM15 million Masjid Sultan Ahmad Shah, the new mosque of International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM), here, Thursday.
