KUALA LUMPUR, May 5 (Bernama) -- The Malay rights group Perkasa has called on the government to take stern action against the organisers of an illegal rally in the capital last Saturday and not only against its participants.

Perkasa president Datuk Ibrahim Ali said the organisers of the rally that turned ugly got away scot-free while the protestors had to bear the brunt.

"It is important for the authorities to take action and prosecute leaders of the rally," he said in a statement Saturday.
