KUALA LUMPUR, May 5 (Bernama) -- The government set up the Independent Advisory Panel, as decided by the Cabinet, to ease the concerns of all quarters including the public and media following the rally in the capital last Saturday, said Home Minister Datuk Seri Hishammuddin Tun Hussein.

He said riots in the aftermath of the rally had raised various safety issues and concerns among the community regarding the action of rioters and security personnel.

"At the Cabinet meeting last Wednesday, the ministers emphasised the need for the government to take measures and action for security and public order in the country following the demonstration.

"In line with the Cabinet's wishes, the government has decided to form the panel," he said in a statement Saturday.

He said the names of the panel's members and jurisdiction would be announced soon.
