KOTA BAHARU, May 5 (Bernama) -- The special investigation panel to be set up relating to the rally held by non-governmental organisations supported by the opposition in the federal capital last Saturday, will ensure justice for all parties without any prejudice, said Home Minister Datuk Seri Hishammuddin Tun Hussein.

He said with the establishment of the panel, the names of members to be announced next week, it would enable all parties to have their say and come up with the needed evidence.

"We want the truth so that justice can be done not only for the police but also for the media and members of the public. He told this to reporters after attending the launching of the Kelantan Rural Transformation Centre here.

The RM140 million centre was launched by the Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak.

The special panel was announced by Najib two days ago in line with the decision of the Cabinet so that all that took place at the assembly is investigated.
