JELI, May 9 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister's wife Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor today called on single mothers to double up their efforts to improve themselves so that they and their families will have a better future.

While admitting that it was not easy to live in a society that has a mixed perceptions of single mothers, Rosmah also said that single mothers should not feel too isolated as they were not alone.

"The most important thing you must remember is that you are not alone and don't ever feel that you have to carry all the burdens by yourself," she said when addressing 1,200 single mothers and poor children in Darul Falah here Wednesday.

Rosmah said the government, led by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak, was always concerned about the problems faced by single mothers and had introduced various initiatives and programmes to help them, including the 1Malaysia People's Aid, 1Malaysia Clinic, 1Malaysia People's Menu and 1Malaysia People's Shop.
