KUALA LUMPUR, May 11 (Bernama) -- CUEPACS hopes Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak can immediately name members of the commission to review the salary of civil servants.

Its president Datuk Omar Osman said CUEPACS is eagerly waiting for announcement on members of the commission, set up after the Public Service New Remuneration Scheme (SBPA) was scrapped on March 8.

"In conjunction with Workers Day 2012 celebration Saturday, CUEPACS hopes to receive good news from the prime minister.

"Civil servants from 23 government agencies are wondering about the matter, especially the question of salary," he said after attending Workers Day celebration by Federation of Malaysian Public Universities Staff Union (Gakum) at International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM), here Friday.

Najib who announced the commission on March 8 also announced implementation of an improved Malaysian Remuneration Scheme (SSM).
