KUALA LUMPUR, May 13 (Bernama) -- The national PAS Youth wing today lashed out at DAP chairman Karpal Singh for criticising PAS president Datuk Seri Abdul Hadi Awang on the issue of implementing 'hudud' law if the opposition pact were to rule the country.

The wing's vice-head, Dr Raja Ahmad Al Hiss claimed that the move by Karpal Singh when he stated his opinion publicly on Abdul Hadi, who is the leader of an Islamic political party in the country, was most inappropriate.

"As PAS president and a top leader of the PR (opposition pact), Abdul Hadi had the right to issue any statement on whatever policy championed by PAS," he said in a statement, here Sunday.

Raja Ahmad said PAS had always respected the views and opinions of the DAP leaders as well as the principles of the party's cause, and hoped Karpal Singh would do likewise with regard to PAS principles.
