KUALA LUMPUR, May 15 (Bernama) -- The High Court here Tuesday rejected an application by the committee members of Bersih 2.0 and its chairman Datuk S. Ambiga to question Home Affairs Minister Datuk Seri Hishammuddin Tun Hussein's decision to consider Bersih 2.0 illegal.

Justice Datuk Rohana Yusuf who made the ruling in chambers further rejected Ambiga's application to question the Inspector General of Police (IGP) and the alleged 1,706 police reports against her and the group.

The Home Minister, IGP and the government who were respondents in the application were represented by Senior Federal Counsel (SFC) Azizan Md Arshad while the applicants, by counsel K. Shanmuga.

Azizan later told reporters that the judge rejected the application because they were filed after the deadline.

"The judge held that Ambiga should have filed the application within 14 days after the court allowed her leave for a judicial review to quash the Home minister's decision, instead of four months later," he said.
