IPOH, May 15 (Bernama) - Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Dr Zambry Abdul Kadir says Perak Barisan Nasional will study the party's national manifesto before it is implemented in the state.

"The Perak BN manifesto will have several additional items to suit local needs," he said after visiting the Paediatric Ward, Intensive Care Unit of Raja Permaisuri Bainun Hospital here Tuesday.

On the resignation of DAP vice-chairman Tunku Abdul Aziz Tunku Ibrahim, he said it was a dignified act after finding that the party's justice, democratic rights and equality are not for everyone.

Tunku Abdul Aziz had a good experience and learnt a bitter lesson during his stint with the DAP, a party which claimed to be the best.

Zambry who is also Perak BN chairman said Tunku Abdul Aziz's resignation is a big blow to the DAP and the opposition as general election beckons.
