TUMPAT, May 17 (Bernama) -- A non-governmental organisation, called "Gerakan Tukar Kerajaan PAS Kelantan Demi Rakyat" or Tukar, will continue with its programme to demand the state government to fulfill the 22 promises it had made to the people.

Its chairman, Kamarudin Mohd Kasim, said the movement would continue with its activities until the coming general election.

He told this to reporters at its programme held at the site of the foundation laying for the construction of a second bridge across Sungai Kelantan at Kampung Palekbang-Kampung Cina here.

Our next programme would be at the site of the foundation laying for an inland port project in Kuala Krai.

He said the two projects were among several which had not been fulfilled by the state government.
