KOTA BAHARU, May 19 (Bernama) -- Kelantan People's Action Council (MTRK) today handed a memorandum expressing support for police handling of the Bersih 3.0 rally in Kuala Lumpur on April 28.

The memorandum and a bouquet of flowets were handed over by MTRK president Che Azmi Mohd Ali to Deputy Inspector-General of Police Datuk Seri Khalid Abu Bakar during the latter's visit to Kelantan, Saturday.

Che Azmi said police had handled the Bersih rally firmly and professionally, although they were verbally abused, pelted with objects and physically attacked by some of the rally participants.

"We strongly condemn the politically-motivated rally which turned violent, causing damage to public property and injuries including to policemen," he said.
