KLANG, May 20 (Bernama) -- MCA president Datuk Seri Dr Chua Soi Lek has asked PAS Spiritual Leader Datuk Nik Abdul Aziz Nik Mat whether he had sought the agreement of his opposition coalition partners, namely Parti Keadilan Rakyat and DAP, to hold talks with Umno.

He understood the opposition coalition had a resolution whereby, any policy which was not unanimously agreed upon, could not be a policy of the coalition.

"So, I want to ask him whether he had obtained the agreement of DAP and Keadilan...if not, we cannot hold to what had been declared by the opposition coalition.

"They will keep changing, with the hope of garnering support from the people," he said at a meeting with non-governmental organisations here Sunday.
