PUTRAJAYA, May 6 (Bernama) -- MCA members were today reminded to not sacrifice the camaraderie among members of Barisan Nasional component parties, built since 50 years ago, only because of the tussle for seats in the coming general election.

Its president, Datuk Seri Dr Chua Soi Lek told party members that it was their responsibility to help ensure victory for BN candidates, even in seats not contested by candidates from MCA.

Speaking to reporters after a meeting with the party's branch leaders here Sunday, he said MCA members should leave to the wisdom of Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak to decide on the candidates to be fielded for the coming general election.
