KUALA LUMPUR, June 13 (Bernama) -- Bersih 3.0 co-chairman Datuk S. Ambiga and nine others have filed counter claims seeking the High Court to declare the Peaceful Assembly Act 2010 as unconstitutional.

The defendants, as alternative, are seeking the court to declare Section 6 of the Act as unconstitutional.

The group who filed the claims on June 8 via Messrs Tommy Thomas, also seeks general and aggravated damages, besides costs from the plaintiff, the Government of Malaysia.

On May 15, a senior federal counsel on behalf of the government and Attorney-General's Chambers, filed a suit against the defendants claiming special compensation amounting to RM122,000 as cost to repair the damaged police vehicles, other costs, interests and other relief deemed fit by the court.

In its statement of claims, the government, as the plaintiff, has named Ambiga, Maria Chin Abdullah, Zaid Kamarudin, Haris Fathillah Mohamed, K.Arumugam, S.Arul Prakkash, Wong Chin Huat, Dr Ahmad Farouk Musa, Toh Kin Woon and Andrew Khoo as defendants.
