KUCHING, June 14 (Bernama) -- The Samariang Barisan Nasional (BN), one of the constituencies under the Petra Jaya parliamentary, is all set to face the 13th general election, its state assembly member, Sharifah Hasidah Sayeed Aman Ghazali said here, Thursday.

She said their coalition machinery had been well-oiled and synergising well with their neighbouring counterparts in Tupong and Satok in anticipation of the general election, which could be called anytime now.

"God willing, we will ensure a big win for BN... our election machinery is on their toes and just waiting for the general election siren," she told reporters after officiating a Labour Day celebration organised by the Defence Ministry Civilian Workers Union (Kesatria) Sarawak branch here.

Hasidah said they had enjoyed a good working relationship with Petra Jaya incumbent, Datuk Fadillah Yusof, who is also the Deputy Science, Technology and Innovation Minister.

However, she reiterated that they would abide by any final decision made by BN's top leadership on the candidate and to focus on ensuring a sound victory in Petra Jaya.
