KUALA LUMPUR, June 14 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak said the government had never given permission for the proposal to sell the MEX Highway concession to EP Manufacturing Berhad.

Najib said this was because several matters pertaining to policies on the highway concession were still being studied by the government.

"As such, there is no necessity for the government to study the takeover of the MEX Highway," he said in his written reply to Tony Pua Kiam Wee (DAP-Petaling Jaya Utara) in the Dewan Rakyat today.

Tony Pua had asked why the MEX Highway would be given permission to sell the highway concession to EP Manufacturing Berhad.
