PUTRAJAYA, June 20 (Bernama) -- It is good to have freedom of assembly, but there must be some limits because a good government should not only be responsible to a minority group but also to the majority.

Former prime minister Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad said all freedoms are limited, simply because that freedom one had might encroach or negate the freedom of others.

"So, we have to accept these limits. We cannot go beyond that and do certain things because others are also entitled to freedom," he said in his talk, 'Peaceful Assembly Act 2012 - Future and Challenges', here, Wednesday.
