KULIM, June 26 (Bernama) -- The Kulim/Bandar Baharu Barisan Nasional Supporters Club (KPBNKBB) which was formed to regain the Parliamentary seat for the constituency as well as its two State seats in the upcoming election has forbidden its members from submitting themselves as candidates for any political affiliation during the election.

Besides that, its members are also not allowed to contest for any post in the party, be it at the branch or division level.

Its president Mokhtar Omar said the club members have taken an oath of allegiance to support all Barisan Nasional activities in Kulim/Bandar Baharu in its effort to regain the Parliamentary seats.

"We have voluntarily extended ourselves to sincerely help BN candidates to win here in the upcoming elections," he told BN Kulim/Bandar Baharu Chairman Datuk Abdul Aziz Sheikh Fadzir in a meeting here yesterday.

Thirty committee members of club along with several Umno committee members for the division were present at the meeting which lasted for almost three hours.
