SINGAPORE, June 26 (Bernama) -- The case of three Singaporean diplomats allegedly involved in the Bersih 3.0 rally in April will be handled by the home ministries of both countries.

Malaysian Home Minister Datuk Seri Hishammuddin Tun Hussein said Singapore and Malaysia had agreed that the respective ministries handle the matter pertaining to the illegal rally held on May 28.

He was speaking to reporters after the signing of a memorandum of understanding (MoU) on Drug Enforcement Cooperation between Malaysia and Singapore here Tuesday.

Hishammudin and Singapore Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Home Affairs Teo Chee Hean signed the MoU on behalf of both the ministries at Singapore's Ministry of Home Affairs.
