KUALA LUMPUR, May 30 (Bernama) -- Some 100 traders and hawkers from around the city have submitted claims on losses they suffered because of the Bersih rally held here on April 28 to a panel of lawyers acting 'pro bono' for them.

Kuala Lumpur Traders Action council chairman Datuk Jamal Md Yunus, who revealed this at a press conference here today, said he expected up to 70 per cent of the traders and hawkers who were affected to submit their claims before the June 30 deadline given to them.

"As for the rest, we will make our own loss estimates," he said, adding that the panel would evaluate their claims before forwarding them to the relevant parties for further action.
