

Selangor folk eagerly awaiting PM
New Straits Times
08 July, 2012

BANGI: The Jelajah Janji Ditepati carnival here is all set for a big celebration today.

The Malaysian Tax Academy field in Teras Jernang where the carnival is taking place, was a hive of activities yesterday.

Workers were busy setting up tents and booths. By evening everything was ready, all set to welcome Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak as well as other visitors.

Muhamadiyah Khairul Azri, 65, said she was eager to meet Najib to thank him for the various efforts he had initiated to help low-income earners.

"The Bantuan Rakyat 1Malaysia (BR1M) and Kedai Runcit 1Malaysia (KR1M) initiatives had helped a lot.

"I would love to express my gratitude to the prime minister. He keeps his word and is a credible leader like his late father, Tun Abdul Razak," the mother of five and grandmother of 13, said.

Muhamadiyah's enthusiasm was also shared by Nazrizal Salim Jaafar.

The 27-year-old engineer said Najib was attuned to the needs of youths.

"Under Najib's leadership, the Youth Parliament was formed to give youths a voice.

"Youths are seen as an important engine of change under Najib's administration and I would like to thank him for taking us seriously."

For S. Samarajoo, 42, the Klinik 1Malaysia was a laudable move.

"Medical care is becoming increasingly expensive and having these clinics is wise."

Samarajoo said the carnival was also a good effort by Najib to engage the people.

A two-day autoshow, Selangor Autoshow Challenge 2012, which kicked off yesterday at the car park area of the academy, is expected to attract about 200 participants.

Copyright © 2012 The New Straits Times Press (Malaysia) Berhad.

Source: <http://www.nst.com.my/nation/general/selangor-folk-eagerly-awaiting-pm-1.104141>