PETALING JAYA: Higher Education Minister Datuk Seri Mohamed Khaled Nordin on Sunday paid a courtesy call on new Egyptian President Mohamed Morsy at the Presidential office in Cairo.

Khaled is in Cairo as the Special Representative of Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak and the Government of Malaysia to convey a congratulatory message to Mohamed Morsy on his recent election as the fifth President.

Morsy expressed his appreciation to Najib for the warm message and greeting.

The President said he was gratified with Malaysia's support for Egypt's democratisation process and expressed hope that Malaysia would continue to extend assistance to Egypt and other areas of cooperation.

Khaled was accompanied by Malaysian ambassador to Egypt Datuk Dr Mohd Fakhrudin Abdul Mukti.
