KUALA LUMPUR: The Election Commission (EC) received 205,757 applications for voter registration during the second quarter of 2012, between April and June.

According to an EC statement here Wednesday, the Supplementary Electoral Rolls will be displayed at 950 venues nationwide for 14 days, starting Thursday.

The venues comprise 15 EC state offices, 453 computerised post offices, 86 government complexes/offices, 123 district/land offices, 48 district/municipal councils, 190 multipurpose/community halls/village head offices and 35 other related places.

"New applicants whose names have not been listed may query the matter with Form B and submit it to the Registrar (State General Election) of the area, during office hours," it said.

The statement added that Form C should be used to contest the inclusion of any names in the rolls.
