PUTRAJAYA: Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak, who assumed the role of Women, Family, and Community Development Minister on April 9, addressed staff at the ministry's office here for the first time Thursday.

In his inaugural visit to the 38-storey building since taking over from Datuk Seri Shahrizat Abdul Jalil, Najib urged the ministry staff to carry on the work of his predecessor.

"I would like to record my appreciation to Shahrizat, who in her term as minister, has strived to achieve the objectives of this ministry," Najib said at the monthly staff gathering.
