PUTRAJAYA: There is currently no need for water rationing in Selangor, Kuala Lumpur and Putrajaya, said Deputy Prime Minister Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin.

He said there were only several areas in the city and Selangor where there have been complaints of supply disruptions.

For these areas, which included Pandan Indah in Kuala Lumpur and Kapar in Klang, Syabas has been ordered to send water supply, Muhyiddin said.

"In the current situation, (statewide) rationing is not yet needed," he said at a press conference after chairing the first meeting of the special Cabinet committee on Selangor's water problems here Monday.
