MALACCA: With the Euro 2012 tournament in full swing, Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak can't help but use football to get his message through.

He told Barisan Nasional leaders and supporters here to strive hard like the players in order to beat the opponents.

"The Euro 2012 tournament would not see scores like I aspire for Barisan in the 13th general election.

"(But) I'm confident we would emerge with 14-0, zero for the opposition," he said in his speech during a visit here on Saturday.

Najib said he does not have time to watch football but when he does he would observe the perseverance and determination of the players to win a match.

"So, why not we (Barisan leaders) use the spirit shown by football players to win the election.

"We will beat our rivals, let them go back with a zero score," he said to the applause of the thousands who turned up for the Janji ditepati programme with the people.

At a press-conference later, Najib, who was asked of the Spain versus France game on Sunday morning, said: "Guess (its) Spain, they seem to have the advantage."

Najib also took a bus ride to Jalan Hang Tuah to open the Melaka City Transformation Centre.
