KUALA LUMPUR, July 6 (Bernama) -- The 11th National Cooperative Day Expo is set to be the biggest expo to date with the presence of numerous ASEAN countries at the event in the Bukit Jalil National Stadium, starting next Friday.

Cooperative Commission of Malaysia, executive chairman, Md Yusof Samsudin said it was the first time ASEAN cooperatives from Indonesia, the Philippines, Brunei and Thailand were participating in the three-day expo in conjunction with the 2012 National Cooperative Day.

"There would be 300 booths exhibiting products from the cooperatives" he told Bernama in an exclusive interview today.

Md Yusof said the expo aimed to allow cooperative members to exchange ideas and promote their concepts and products to the public.

The expo is scheduled to be opened by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak at 8.30 pm on July 14, he added.
