KUALA LUMPUR, July 7 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak Saturday assured the young generation that the country's leadership would do their best to safeguard their future.

He said that as heirs and a generation who would inherit the country's leadership, they would certainly expect their future to be better than today.

"We can see in the Middle East, Africa, and, in fact, in Europe, the unemployment rate is almost 40 per cent.

"But, in our country, through policies and proper planning, as well as effective implementation, the youths believe in a better future for the country.

"This is our journey and the country's transformation agenda," he said at the 'Ekspresi Remaja Bersama Perdana Menteri' programme at the National Stadium here.

Najib's wife, Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor, who is also the President of the Girl Guides Association of Malaysia, was also present at the function.

Najib said that the government regarded the young generation as a valuable asset and treasure.

He said the government would further enhance its engagement with the young generation, regarding it as an investment for the country's future.

Najib also referred to the "2012 Gathering Of A Million Youths" in Putrajaya recently, which he said was a great success.

"There will be another programme next week, an activity on volunteerism which will be enhanced with the participation of the young people and youths," he added.
