

Group Activities Can Instil Positive Values – Rosmah
Bernama
July 07, 2012

KUALA LUMPUR, July 7 (Bernama) -- The Prime Minister's wife, Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor, wants more girls to join the Girl Guides Association of Malaysia to fill their free time with healthy activities.

She said that their participation in such an association could inculcate positive values in them, like responsibility, caring, courteous and spirit of volunteerism and cooperation.

"Children's participation in the Girl Guides Association and Scouts Movement can help to build a generation with vision and viability.

"I want the children to have physical strength and a strong mind which can stimulate them to think towards liberating themselves from the colonisation of their thoughts, confusion and uncertainty," said Rosmah, who is the President of the Girl Guides Association of Malaysia, in her speech at the 'Ekspresi Remaja Bersama Perdana Menteri' programme here Saturday.

Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak, who is also the Malaysian Scouts President-General, was also present at the function organised by the Girl Guides Association of Malaysia.

-- BERNAMA

Copyright © 2012 BERNAMA

Source: <http://www.bernama.com/bernama/v6/newsindex.php?id=678881>