July 07, 2012

PUTRAJAYA, July 7 (Bernama) -- Higher Education Minister Datuk Seri Mohamed Khaled Nordin left for Cairo today to pay a courtesy call on Egypt's new president, Mohammed Morsi.

A Foreign Ministry statement said Mohamed Khaled would be making the visit as a special envoy of Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak to convey congratulations on behalf of the Malaysian government on Morsi's election as the fifth president of Egypt.

The courtesy call is scheduled to take place tomorrow at the office of the Egyptian president.

Mohamed Khaled is accompanied by several senior government officers.
