

MIC Youth Confident Of Meeting Over 100,000 Voters Before General Election
Bernama
July 08, 2012

KUALA LUMPUR, July 8 (Bernama) -- MIC Youth is confident of meeting more than 100,000 voters before the coming 13th general election through a programme called "Ops Jelas" (Operation Explain).

Its chief T.Mohan said the movement would explain to the Indian community all the misunderstood issues and wild accusations made by the opposition against the Barisan Nasional (BN) government.

"MIC Youth will go down to the field and meet with the Indians in small groups to also explain to them the government's contributions and allocations (for the Indian community's development," he told a news conference, here, Sunday.

Mohan said "Ops Jelas" would give the Indian community an opportunity to ask questions on any issue related to the government which they did not understand or could have misunderstood.

"The programme is also to seek out and gather the MIC voters in preparation for the coming general election," he added.

-- BERNAMA

Copyright © 2012 BERNAMA

Source: <http://www.bernama.com/bernama/v6/newsindex.php?id=678952>