PUTRAJAYA, July 8 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak today made the "3K Berkembar" pledge by the government to the people: peace and security, stability and harmony; and prosperity and progress.

He said peace and security would not be achieved if the constitution and rule of law were not respected citing street protests which benefited no one and only created chaos and anarchy.

"We must respect the constitution and rule of law as this is the pillar of our nation," he said at 'Janji Ditepati' tour programme in Teras Jernang here today.

As for stability and harmony, social justice and harmony brought by BN via initiatives including the 1Malaysia concept led to a more stable and strong nation.

Najib said it was different with the opposition which seemed united on the outside but in fact are facing many internal problems.

"In Selangor, two big camps are at loggerhead but they cover it up. Many moral issues related to the opposition leader are not answered."

He criticised the Kelantan PAS government which failed to administer the state and changed the Islamic state concept to welfare and raised the hudud law issue.

"Everything must go green. The house, mosque, fencing and so on. Don't just change the colour. They must have an agenda for the people's wellbeing, this is unlike BN."

In terms of prosperity and progress, a lot has been achieved by the BN government, all for the benefit of the people.

Najib said despite the dry world capital market, the local capital market is fresh and dynamic, all due to good planning by the government.

The BN government not only deliver pledges made but also promised Malaysians a better future.

They include giving free education, Bantuan Rakyat 1Malaysia, Kedai Rakyat 1Malaysia, book voucher, free tyres for taxi drivers and many more.

"Maybe we made a little mistake during the last election but we have learned from that mistake and we will do our best in future."

Many more are in the pipeline like Kedai Buku 1Malaysia that will offer books and stationery at lower price, and Kedai Kain 1Malaysia.
