KUALA LUMPUR, July 10 (Bernama) -- Malaysia has called on Asia-Pacific states to continue supporting diplomatic efforts by the Quartet on the Middle East to accelerate peace talks between Palestine and Israel.

Foreign Ministry deputy secretary-general (Bilateral Affairs) Datuk Husni Zai Yaacop (repeat" Yaacop) said every state should be part of these global, concentrated and coordinated efforts as civil societies to realise the legitimate aspirations of the Palestinians and the international community.

"We must remain conscious of the efforts by the Committee on the Exercise of the Inalienable Rights of the Palestinian People (CEIRPP) especially to heighten international awareness of all aspects of the question for Palestine and promote international support for and assistance to the Palestinian people and to bring to an end of the Palestinians sufferings.

"As such, we must continue to create and raise public awareness on the Palestinian struggle," he said during the United Nations Asian and Pacific Meeting in Support of Israeli-Palestinian Peace in Bangkok, Thailand on Tuesday.
