SINGAPORE, June 27 (Bernama) -- Malaysia has been picked as the country of honour by JEC Asia 2012, as former Prime Minister Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad marked the ceremony with his esteemed presence, receiving a Life Achievement Award from JEC and the country's composites industry.

Dr Mahathir, Malaysia's longest serving Prime Minister and with a political career spanning over 40 years, received the award at the opening ceremony of the three-day event at the Suntec Convention Centre here yesterday.

During his 22-year tenure as Prime Minister, Malaysia underwent rapid modernisation, robust economic growth and initiated many mega infrastructure projects.

The Life Achievement Award was in recognition of Dr Mahathir's untireless work during his entire career. He was also instrumental in promoting products, technologies, researches and professional skills in the Malaysian composites industry.

JEC Asia 2012 also awarded the Business Achievement Award to Datuk Rosdi Mahmud, Chief Executive Officer of CTRM (Composites Technology Research Malaysia Sdn Bhd) and an Award Tribute to Tsai Chao Fang, Chief Executive Officer of Singapore Highpolymer Chemical Products Pte Ltd.

JEC Asia 2012 is an international exhibition riding on strong growth of the Asia Pacific MEA composites market.

It is the only event in Asia that brings all global composite Asian industry players together. The event is supported by major professional composites associations from Australia, China, India, Japan, Malaysia, Singapore, Taiwan and Thailand.
