PEKAN, June 28 (Bernama) -- Two hundred petty traders from the Pekan district today received RM1 million worth of aid in the form of machines and appliances under the 1Malaysia People's Welfare (Karisma) 1Azam programme.

The presentation of the aid was held in the compound of Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak's Pekan residence by Najib's private secretary Datuk Mohd Poad Jelani.

Datuk Mohd Poad in his speech called on recipients who benefited from the assistance to expand their business beyond Pekan and the entire state of Pahang.

He said many products by small entrepreneurs in the district had huge potential to penetrate the market in other states, such kuih bakar, puding raja and murtabak mengkasar.
