KUALA LUMPUR, June 30 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak has been invited to attend the Euro 2012 final "live viewing party" known as "Gegaran Euro 2012 Bersama Rakyat 1Malaysia" at I-City in Shah Alam on Monday morning, said I-Berhad executive chairman Tan Sri Lim Kim Hong.

He said Najib, a keen soccer fan, was expected to arrive at 1.30am on Monday morning before the game kicks off at 2.45am between Italy and Spain.

Lim said a giant LED screen measuring 40 ft (12.2 metres) by 16 ft (4.88 metres), said to be Malaysia's largest, has specially been erected for the "live viewing party" at I-City, a theme and technology park being developed by the company.

He said the "live viewing party" would start from 5pm on Sunday with mini concerts and other activities.
