KUANTAN, July 21 (Bernama) -- Consensus between local communities is an important pillar to ensure success in transforming the nation, says the Prime Minister.

Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak said only through a solid consensus and unity among the people could the target of the struggle be achieved.

"In the context of the community in Kampung Ketapang, I see the success in beautifying and enlightening the An-Nur Mosque is a result of the gotong royong of about 700 residents," he said in his speech after handing contribution to 70 poor, senior citizens, orphans and single mothers in conjunction with Ramadan at the An-Nur Mosque, Kampung Ketapang Hilir, here, Friday night.

Earlier, Najib, in light chocolate baju melayu and sarong, arrived at the mosque at about 8.30pm.

He then performed the Ishak prayers and the first tarawih prayers with about 500 residents of Pekan at the mosque.

The prayers were led by the second imam of the Sultan Ahmad Shah Al-Haji Mosque in Pekan, Mohd Lutfi Syahwan Muhd Bashir.

During the ceremony, Najib also shook hands, chatted and enjoyed the moreh feast with the congregation present.
