KUALA TERENGGANU, July 21 (Bernama) -- The Terengganu Government is increasing its Raya aid fund for the poor by 10 per cent this year, for distribution by the third week of the fasting month.

Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Ahmad Said said the additional 10 per cent on top of RM45 million allocation last year, was to accommodate new needy families in the state.

"The Raya aid fund has been increasing by 10 per cent each year and this year, we are allocating almost RM50 million for distribution among 150,000 poor people in the state," he said.

He was speaking to reporters after distributing 'bubur lambuk' (porridge) on the first day of fasting to local residents at the Abidin Mosque here Saturday.
