KUALA LUMPUR, Aug 1 (Bernama) -- MCA vice-president Datuk Seri Chor Chee Heung today challenged DAP secretary-general Lim Guan Eng to openly clarify Pakatan Rakyat's common policy to prove that DAP is really against the implementation of hudud law.

Chor said DAP tended to keep quiet although it had been urged repeatedly by the public to clarify its stand on PAS' attempt to implement hudud law.

In a statement issued here, Chor, who is also Housing and Local Government Minister, said Guan Eng should also prove that DAP was not merely using the same policy that had been agreed upon by the party and PAS as an excuse to mislead the people.

"Under public pressure, Guan Eng has used his common policy to explain the relationship between DAP and PAS, trying to twist the fact that DAP has allowed PAS to implement hudud. Unfortunately, the policy which DAP has shown is not consistent with the details and explanation given," he said.

The Alor Setar MP added that if the common policy that Guan Eng had been talking about was the Buku Jingga, then why PAS-ruled Kelantan had imposed certain bans in the state, such as on licensed betting and liquor, despite the fact that those policies were not listed in the book.
