KUALA TERENGGANU, Aug 1 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak will make a visit to the Kuala Nerus constituency in Terengganu on Aug 9 where he will also break fast with the local community.

Terengganu Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Ahmad Said said Najib was expected to arrive at Sultan Mahmud Airport here at 5.30pm and would be driven straight to the Sekolah Kebangsaan Tok Jiring football field.

"Before breaking fast with some 8,000 people there, the prime minister will present 'jubah' (robes) to imam and bilal in the Kuala Nerus parliamentary area," he said after chairing a state executive council (exco) meeting at Wisma Darul Iman, here, Wednesday.

Ahmad said Najib would also be handing out Ramadan contributions to orphans, the disabled, senior citizens, single mothers and the poor at the function.

After that, Najib will perform Isyak and Tarawih prayers at the Wakaf Tembesu mosque before departing for Kuala Lumpur.
