KANGAR, Aug 1 (Bernama) -- The Raja Muda of Perlis, Tuanku Syed Faizuddin Putra Jamalullail, has advised army officers and soldiers to equip themselves with the competitive and creative spirit to be successful in their careers.

They should also improve in every aspect, including in the field of communications as it was an important part of military service, he said during a visit to Pulau Berhala in Sandakan, Sabah, last night.

Tuanku Syed Faizuddin, who is commander of 504th Regiment of the Territorial Army, was addressing officers and troops of the 9th battalion of the Royal Malay Regiment para brigade when breaking fast at the Pulau Berhala camp.

"Nowadays, threats are hard to predict. With technology evolving rapidly, there is a need for creative thinking to devise action plans," he said in a media statement here Wednesday.

At Pulau Berhala, the Raja Muda handed out Raya cakes contributed by the Perlis government to the regiment's officers and personnel.
