BEAUFORT (Sabah), Aug 2 (Bernama) -- The people of Sabah have been reminded to continue banking on the Barisan Nasional (BN) which has proven its capability in taking care of the people and not to place their hopes on any individual.

Sabah Umno Liaison Committee deputy chairman Datuk Seri Salleh Said Keruak said leaders might come and go but the struggle of the party continued.

"We cannot bank our future on any individual. Our future is dependent on a proven party, namely Umno and the BN.

Salleh was speaking at a "terawih" prayer session attended by Sabah BN leaders and the people at the residence of State Community Development and Consumer Affairs Minister Datuk Azizah Mohd Dun in Kg Limbawang, near here.

Salleh, is also Sabah Legislative Assembly Speaker, called on the people in the state to give their undivided support to the BN in the next general election for a brighter future.
